

PRESS RELEASE

Infosys and Avalooq Partner to Strengthen Wealth Management Capabilities through Digital Platforms

Bengaluru, India and Zurich, Switzerland – May 26, 2020: Infosys (NYSE: INFY), the global leader in next-generation digital services and consulting, today announced a strategic partnership with Avalooq, a leading wealth management software and digital technology provider headquartered in Zurich, to provide end-to-end (e2e) wealth management capabilities through digital platforms. As part of the announcement, Infosys will be a strategic implementation partner for Avalooq's wealth management suite of solutions to help clients modernize and transform their legacy systems into cutting-edge digital advisory platforms.

Infosys will leverage its Global Delivery Model and a standardized approach to implement Avalooq's solutions for clients. Avalooq's specialized knowledge and experience in providing end-to-end wealth management solutions combined with Infosys's global presence and digital transformation capabilities will help create a one-stop-shop for wealth management clients. Infosys will work closely with Avalooq to develop market opportunities beyond Switzerland and go to market capability for targeted accounts across multiple geographies. With an initial focus on EMEA and APAC regions, the partnership aims to offer e2e products and services as Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), private cloud or public cloud across the globe. Additionally, Infosys and Avalooq will jointly run specialized courses for Infosys experts to get enabled on the Avalooq platform.

Avalooq will also leverage Infosys's delivery strengths including scale, its Global Delivery Model, its standardized implementation approach, proprietary Infosys tools, and accelerators to reduce the total cost of ownership for product implementation.

Mohit Joshi, President, Infosys, said, "We are excited to partner with Avalooq, a market leader in providing wealth management solutions. We are making significant investments in this partnership, which will materially enhance the value we offer to our financial services clients and will complement our approach to provide industry-focused wealth management solutions. I am excited about taking Avalooq's SaaS and other cloud-based offerings to our wealth management clients to help them seamlessly scale up their operations."

Juerg Hunziker, Chief Executive Officer of Avalooq, said, "Avalooq is a global leader in digital banking solutions, core banking software and wealth management technology. We plan to extend our leadership position and provide our SaaS and BPaaS services to the global wealth management segment. Avalooq's industry-leading wealth management products coupled with Infosys's proven delivery strengths will provide an integrated end-to-end solution for wealth management. With its global reach, large talent pool and impeccable delivery track record, Infosys is the perfect partner to help us achieve this goal.”

About Avaloq

Founded in 1985, Swiss-based Avaloq is a global leader in digital banking solutions, core banking software and wealth management technology. We provide powerful cloud computing solutions for banks and wealth managers through business process as a service (BPaaS) and software as a service (SaaS). Avaloq is the only independent banking software provider to develop and also operate its own software. Our established core banking system is complemented by three innovative platforms – Engage, Wealth and Insight – providing end-to-end digital solutions at a level of simplicity that will pave the way for the democratization of wealth management. To further spur innovation, we connect our clients with selected fintechs through the Avaloq.one Ecosystem, our open banking marketplace. More than 150 banks and wealth managers with around CHF 4.5 trillion in assets managed worldwide trust Avaloq for its award-winning products and services. Avaloq has its headquarters in Zurich and employs more than 2,000 people around the world.
