Ticket Draw: TEDxZurich «Opening Doors»
Monday, 30 October 2017 16:50

At TEDxZurich on 17 November, 12 speakers will be presenting compelling ideas about how they want to overcome challenges faced by our society. finews.com will be holding a draw for two exclusive tickets to this event.

The eighth TEDxZurich, which LGT is sponsoring as a partner, includes speakers such as Robert Riener, Professor of Sensory-Motor Systems at ETH Zurich, Nadja Schnetzler, Co-Founder of BrainStore, and Swiss comedian and parodist Fabian Unteregger, who will be talking about their ideas on alternative leadership and business concepts as well as innovative technologies, and will be telling their personal stories.

With their inspiring TEDTalks, they will initiate discussions about geographic and societal boundaries as well as generational lines that are entirely in keeping with the «Opening Doors» motto and will encourage a debate about how these issues can be overcome.

Experience TEDxZurich live and in person finews.com will be drawing names for two exclusive tickets, valued at 70 francs, to TEDxZurich «Opening Doors». The conference will be held on Friday 17 November 2017 in the SRF studios in Zurich.

Be there when Robert Riener, Nadja Schnetzler and many other speakers present their inspiring ideas. Send an email with the subject heading «TEDxZurich: Draw» as well as your first and last name and your address to verlosung@finews.ch by 6 November 2017 at the latest. The winners will be contacted on 13 November 2017.

You can watch the conference live on the web stream on this link. You will also find further information and videos from last year’s TEDxZurich conference on the website.
